CHRISTMAS COUNTDOWN

Advent calendars bring the big event closer every day. Advent calendars are a symbol of the holy season of Advent, the period of preparation of the Nativity, or Christmas.

Advent appears to have been observed since the 4th century. It traditionally began on the Sunday closest to 30 November and covered the next four Sundays. Advent calendars are a fun way of counting down the days until Christmas. They are usually made from a card or poster with small doors concealing a picture or small treat such as chocolate, with a door opened each day from 1st December till Christmas Day.

PANETTONE

Panettone is an Italian classic that is traditionally served at Christmas and other occasions. It's a moist brioche type of bread, studded with candied citrus fruits, raisins or chocolate, usually in a cylindrical shape similar to a chef's hat. It can be served as a bread, cake or dessert. It can be toasted and served for breakfast and it also makes a fabulous bread and butter pudding.

PLANNING YOUR CHRISTMAS DAY LUNCH

- | | |
|---|---|
| 7.30am preheat the oven to 220°C. Stuff the neck end of the defrosted turkey, and rub all over with softened butter and season with salt and pepper. Cover with foil. 7.45am place turkey in the oven and cook for 45minutes. Peel potatoes and keep covered in cold water. Make the bread sauce and set aside. 8.30am reduce the temperature to 170°C. Take time to sort out serving dishes, put drinks to chill. Check and baste turkey occasionally. 12noon increase oven temperature to 200°C. Remove foil from turkey and baste. Return to oven. | 12.15pm par-boil potatoes for 10minutes and heat fat in roasting tin in the oven. 12.25pm put potatoes to roast. 12.35pm blanch parsnips for 5minutes while fat is heating in the oven. Put parsnips to roast. 12.45pm remove turkey and leave to rest, covered loosely with foil. 1pm put pudding on to steam. Make gravy. 1.10pm grill sausages and bacon rolls. 1.15pm cook sprouts, broccoli and carrot, reheat bread sauce and start serving. 1.30pm Christmas lunch is ready! |
|---|---|

Always refer to the packaging to find the cooking times and temperatures for your whole turkey. The cooking instructions should cook your turkey to perfection, but you should always check that it is properly cooked as ovens may vary. To do this, insert a skewer into the deepest part of the thigh; if juices run clear, then it is ready. If not, pop it back into the oven.
